

Henry Rollins

wants to party with you after ACL!*

To the disappointment of Austin's many Rollins fans, Henry announced in his July posting to the 2.13.61 listserv that he would not accept Charles Attal's invitation to perform at the 2008 ACL festival due to its overwhelming corporate environment drowning musicians and fans. Many fans responded saying they had already purchased ACL wristbands just to see Hank, basing their purchase on early, unconfirmed ACL lineups that included the Rollins Band. Not one to let his supporters down, Henry has jammed an Austin appointment into his busy schedule.
